You just click on the journals, books & databases tab.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Royal Society of Chemistry. The navigation menu includes 'About us', 'Membership & professional community', 'Campaigning & outreach', 'Journals, books & databases' (highlighted in yellow), 'Resources & tools', 'News & events', and 'Locations & contacts'. A red arrow points to the 'Journals, books & databases' tab with the text 'Click on the journals, books & databases'. The main banner features the text 'Royal Society of Chemistry We promote, support and celebrate chemistry' and a 'Find out more' button.

Then, click on the Read & search our journals hyperlink.

The screenshot shows the 'Journals, books & databases' page. The 'Read & search our journals' link is circled in red and labeled 'Click here'. The page includes a sidebar with navigation options: 'Journals, books & databases', 'Our journals', 'Journal author & reviewer guidelines', 'Open access', 'Our books', 'Booksellers', 'Databases & literature updates', and 'Librarians' information & resources'. The main content area features the text 'The Royal Society of Chemistry publishes 46 peer-reviewed journals, more than 1,000 print books and a collection of online databases and literature updating services.' and a section titled 'What's in Journals, books & databases?' with a grid of journal covers including ChemSci, Adv. Chem. Phys., Nanoscale, CrystEngComm, ChemComm, Energy Environ. Sci., Chemical Science, and Polymer Chemistry.
